TAYLOR, HON. JEFF S.

2015CA000286 JEFFREY G. GILLAND v PATRICK DOUGHERTY

Appeal from adverse possession judgment finding adverse possession of 23.74 acres. Appellant argues the adverse possessory activities of predecessors of title caused a failure to prove elements of adverse possession by clear and convincing evidence and, further, that indispensable parties were not joined to the action.

TAYLOR, HON. JEFF S.

2014CA001288 CHARLIE COLEMAN v SANITATION DISTRICT NO. 1 OF NORTHERN KENTUCKY

Summary judgment and declaratory judgment action regarding rate increases by sanitation district. Coleman, et al. challenged the legality of the increases in light of new legislation resulting in KRS 220.135 and .035 which altered the process for approving such rate increases. Whether the new legislation applied to the contested rate increases; whether a rational relationship existed between the service charges and the benefit realized; whether the doctrine of laches precluded appellants' claims. Both parties request oral argument.
