LAUREL

Questions Presented:

Motion for post-conviction relief, pursuant to CR 60.02(b), CR 60.02(f), CR 60.03, and RCr 10.02, from murder convictions and imposition of the death penalty. CR 60.02 motions must be made in a reasonable time and successive post-judgment motions are not permitted. Equitable tolling. “Newly discovered evidence” was not of such a decisive value or force that it would, with reasonable certainty, have changed the verdict or that it would probably change the result if a new trial should be granted.

Questions Presented:

Two counts of first-degree rape, first-degree sodomy, and fourth-degree assault, third offense-45 years. Sodomy conviction upheld. Conviction of fourth-degree assault upheld but fourth-degree assault, third conviction, reversed because there was no proof of the identity of the previous victim(s) and the nature of the relationship between the perpetrator and those victim(s). Defendant cannot wait until after the trial to raise an issue with regards to the voluntariness of his statement to police. Imposition of court costs reversed and remanded for consideration in light of Maynes v. Commonwealth.
